OUR GLOBAL ELITE COACHING TEAM

I love coaching candidates to build their confidence and ability to pass and succeed.

One candidate did not know what career she wanted and was unhappy and demotivated. Within a few coaching sessions, she knew exactly what she wanted to do and is now happily working in her ideal job.

Sarah Olsen
UK Head of Coaching

“

It's very fulfilling to guide our candidates in both uncovering their many strengths and in learning how to communicate these effectively in interviews and applications. Many share that they have never thought about how much they have to offer a leading Western organization. Fostering their increased self-confidence and sharpening their career focus make our cross-cultural coaching truly rewarding.

Amy-Louise Goldberg
VP - Head Of Coaching & Talent Management

Our coaches are senior professionals and executives from a wide variety of backgrounds and industries including: banking, accounting, FMCG, legal, and investment industries. All have worked in Western international firms using English as their first language.

They are dedicated, highly skilled and knowledgeable about Western business culture and practices, most have lived and worked in several countries. Many have long HR careers and know the graduate recruitment processes thoroughly from the inside.

GLOBAL ELITE COACHING

Every year, thousands of internships and graduate vacancies are offered by international companies worldwide, many of which offer work permits for international graduates, including Chinese students and graduates.

The biggest challenge for Chinese applicants is their lack of understanding of the recruitment process adopted by international companies and the selection methods and thinking. There is also a deficiency in their knowledge of international companies, of the commercial world and a lack of essential insight into professional life internationally. Even strong students fail to pass the first stages of the application process.

Our Platinum, Diamond and Diamond Plus Career Coaching packages plus our next level Career Progression packages provide essential cross-cultural coaching to enable candidates to reach their potential and become a future global elite.

What will I get from the Global Elite Coaching?

Mandarin Consulting helps graduates and students like you to have a better chance of getting jobs in international companies through a structured, tailor-made and one-to-one programme designed specifically for you individually. The programme helps you through each part of the application process and is supported by our large team of highly experienced, international professionals who have management experience in major companies and a track record of successfully helping candidates get these jobs.

Our programmes also help you to develop detailed professional and business knowledge, which will not only form an essential part in helping you to get a top internship or job offer but will also be the basis for a successful career as a future global elite.

At Mandarin Consulting, we believe:

- The whole aim of coaching in Mandarin Consulting is to close the gap between the potential and actual performance of our candidates.
- Through coaching, people are able to find their own solutions, develop strong career and life skills and build confidence as they recognise their talent and see themselves succeed.
- Our coaching helps candidates develop their job seeking skills and develop professionally with a correct and deeper understanding of professional life, so that they can realise their full potential in the job market.
- You will find strong drive, determination and willingness to learn and succeed, supported by our coaching.

Diamond Package

In depth coverage and extensive skills practice to support recruitment success plus the opportunity to enhance personal skills and gain the business insights needed for the recruitment process

Platinum + Professional Insight Coaching

- ✓ Unlimited Interview and Assessment Centre Coaching
- ✓ First Step Coaching
- ✓ CV Coaching
- ✓ 38 hours of Personal Coaching to include Job Application Skills Coaching, Advanced Interview and Assessment Centre Coaching, Professional Development Coaching and Professional Insight Coaching

Platinum + Professional Insight Coaching

One-to-one Personal Coaching – Professional Insight Coaching

Professional Insight Coaching allows candidates to understand the business world they wish to enter and the skills they need to do so successfully. It allows candidates to perform better throughout the recruitment process because they have the appropriate background understanding and knowledge in place.

- 1) Understanding Western organisation structures – Knowledge needed for commercial and business related questions and exercises in the recruitment process. Understanding how different business structures are used to meet different business needs, the differences between country-based organisations, functional and matrix organisations, differences between partnerships, corporations, large private global firms and public companies. Candidates will also understand key company functions and how they interact, including HR, Finance, Sales, Marketing, Production and Research
- 2) Understanding company vision and strategy – Understanding the difference between vision, strategy, goals and targets and how company values fit with these. Understanding a company's strategic objectives and how the business plan helps the company deliver this. Standing back to understand what is important within organisations and sectors where candidates plan to work as fundamental background knowledge for the recruitment process
- 3) Enhancing job specific knowledge – Developing a clear understanding of a role, likely career progression and relevant qualifications and therefore demonstrating accurate knowledge and a commitment to this career and industry. Showing recruiters how candidates have developed a clear understanding and have a very strong motivation to pursue this career
- 4) Understanding performance development – Understanding how companies assess personal performance, set targets and review performance to give insight into the criteria companies use when recruiting and how companies develop staff. Demonstrating the ability to learn actively, develop personal performance, take on feedback and change
- 5) Understanding Corporate Social Responsibility (CSR) and social aspects of business – How to demonstrate wider social engagement in the recruitment process as an integral part of working life in the West. Understanding why companies value these behaviours and how CSR relates to the company's mission. How to demonstrate experiences companies look for beyond academic and internship experiences
- 6) Developing technical skills – Understanding how to interpret financial or written information such as budgets, business forecasts or plans. Learning how to write a report to meet recruitment standards and deal with the more technical aspects of Assessment Centres
- 7) Developing good business etiquette – Understanding how to behave in many situations from Assessment Centres and networking events to eating and drinking with potential new colleagues and recruiters. Learning how to start formal and informal conversations, appropriate topics to discuss in a professional environment, how to change the subject or leave the conversation, how to follow up with a new contact and make a positive impression
- 8) Increasing your presence and impact – Understanding how to portray a positive image in terms of attitude, appearance and behaviour to make an impact in interviews and Assessment Centres. How to be confident, fully prepared, organised, on time and successful
- 9) Building your profile – Candidates should be seen as highly suited to their chosen field of work and showcase skills, strengths and experiences valued by employers. How to take opportunities, add experiences in new and different areas and build a strong profile to make a significant impact on recruiters and increase the chances of obtaining a job offer
- 10) Finding solutions – Addressing any further issues and challenges you face in securing a role, for example if you lack confidence or are unsure what to do next. Your coach can help and support you through situations to find workable and appropriate solutions

Diamond Plus Package

A fully comprehensive and intensive programme of coaching to meet company recruitment requirements, with the option of Entrepreneurial Skills or further advanced professional coaching and skills development

Diamond + Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching

- ✓ Unlimited Interview and Assessment Centre Coaching
- ✓ First Step Coaching
- ✓ CV Coaching
- ✓ 50 hours of Personal Coaching to include 38 hours of Career Coaching (Job Application Skills Coaching, Advanced Interview and Assessment Centre Coaching, Professional Development Coaching and Professional Insight Coaching) and 12 hours of optional Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching

Diamond + Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching

One-to-one Personal Coaching – Optional Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching

Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching helps candidates to develop a basic understanding of the knowledge and skills needed to build a business. With the guidance of our professional coaches who have extensive knowledge of how businesses work, our candidates can develop these basic skills in order to start their own future business.

The coach will ask questions and discuss ideas, concerns and plans with the candidate. By the end of the programme, candidates will feel better equipped and prepared to take on the exciting challenge of creating a new business.

Entrepreneurial Skills Coaching consists of 3 parts, each of which can be coached by a different coach. The following topics are guidelines only; Personal Coaches will tailor the topics to the needs of the candidate.

1) Plan – Preparing for a successful business launch

- Marketing the launch and planning future campaigns – Learning about getting a business off the ground by generating awareness and demand
- Building an on-line presence – Discussing taking a business on-line to raise business profile and generate sales

3) Operate – Managing and growing a business successfully

- Manufacturing or delivering a service – Exploring how to produce an end product or service to time, cost and quality
- Managing the supply chain – Thinking about how a product or service reaches customers
- Marketing and selling – Exploring how to generate on-going interest and turn this into paying customers
- Managing customer relationships – Exploring how to develop strong customer relationships
- Developing leadership skills – Looking at developing the candidate's skills as a business leader
- Training and developing staff – Exploring how to ensure skills such as teamwork, communication and project management are in place in a business
- On-going planning and budgeting – Understanding how to carry out on-going planning and monitoring of performance and take appropriate actions
- Managing business expansion – Exploring how to expand by adding new markets, products or services

TESTIMONIALS FROM CANDIDATES

Lan, Accenture

“ After graduation, I started my other journey as a job seeker. Like most graduates, I also felt helpless on the direction for both life and career. I like one quote: If opportunity doesn't knock, then build a door. Mandarin consulting is such door. I appreciate the experience and coaching session at MC, which rebuilt my self-confidence and made me fully prepared for each interview and challenge.

The most important thing is I found what is my internal motivation and where I want to go. You'll never please everyone and every employer, but you only need to please a few people to get an offer. I did it and I do believe you will make it as well. ”

I decided to start my career abroad in the very beginning of my master. However, the strict timescale, as well as stress from study, made me panic for over half a year. When I received over 400 rejection letters, I met Mandarin Consulting. I have to say, my coach indeed changed my life.

Not only the seeking-job abilities but also the integrity, passionate and professional attitude towards her job, and everything she loves inspired me a lot. Ten thousand biggest thanks for Mandarin Consulting!!! ”

Yudi, Jaguar Land Rover

Ben, Barclays

“

Mandarin Consulting has helped me a lot because the coaches are very professional. Some of them have been working in the finance industry for many years and they have experience of how they expect the candidates to apply for a job in the UK. ”

“

You might get lost, you might not know how to get started, you might not be confident, but Mandarin Consulting is really good at helping the students to build up their confidence and also to help them to gain the skills necessary to deal with interviews and online tests and everything. ”
